

Invitation

You are cordially invited to a special hybrid event organised by the Europaeum and Charles University to honour the life and work of Karel Schwarzenberg, the Czech democracy campaigner and foreign minister who served as a Europaeum Trustee for many years.

The sub-theme for the event is the Future of Democracy in Europe today.

Chaired by Dr Andrew Graham, Chair of Trustees of the Europaeum, and Prof. PhDr. Eva Voldřichová Beránková, PhD, Vice-Rector for International Affairs, Charles University. Introduced by Prof. JUDr. Jan Kuklík, PhD, Charles University.

Speakers: Dr Barbara Tóth; Michael Žantovský; Prof. Timothy Garton Ash; doc. Dr. habil. MA PhDr. Petra Guasti, PhD; Dr Jakub Franěk; and Prof. Jacques Rupnik.

Date: Tuesday 13 May 2025

Time: 14.30 - 17.00 hours CET / 13.30 - 16.00 hours GMT

In-person attendees: please register in advance using this registration link by 8 May.

Refreshments: 17.00 - 18.00 hours CET

Venue: Charles University, Blue Auditorium, Celetná 20, Prague 1.

Online attendees: please access the stream through this MS Teams' link.

The Europaeum is a network of leading universities in Europe. Its programmes enable graduate students to think, learn and develop skills together - across disciplines, cultures and countries. Their discussions of Europe's past, present and future help empower them to address new global challenges and offer leadership for tomorrow. The network is based at St Antony's College, University of Oxford.