

Medicine facing death

A world expert on geriatrics and palliative medicine professor Sean Morrison from Icahn School of Medicine at Mount Sinai in New York accepted the invitation from Center for Palliative Care and will present his lecture “Transforming Care for the Seriously Ill: The Role of Modern Palliative Care” in a special event in Prague.

2nd June 2016, 16:00

Modrá posluchárna Karolinum UK, Celetná 20, Praha 1

Free entry. The lecture is organized under the auspices of prof. Tomas Zima, rector of Charles University.

More information.

prof. Sean Morrison

Icahn School of Medicine / New York