
XXXI Summer School of History

Charles University, Faculty of education, Institute of the Professional Development of Educational System Employees invites you to XXXI Summer school of history, from 30. June to 4. July 2018 in Prague.

Summer school of history traditionally offers lectures and discussions with our best historians and experts from other disciplines, from Charles University, other universities, Czech Academy of Sciences and more institutions.

Main theme will be "eight" anniversaries of Czechoslovakian history accompanied by other lectures from European and world history.

Program is accredited by Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports - Participants will receive "Charles University Certificate about Summer School of History participation".

Summer school will be held in Czech.

Conception and organisation:

PhDr. Jana Kohnová, Ph.D. a Mgr. Barbora Holubová

Electronical registration and more information about Summer school of history: <http://www.pedf.cuni.cz/uprps> - "Education"