
Trends in biological didactics

Department of Biology and Environmental Studies of the Charles University's Faculty of Pedagogy holds the 3rd annual volume of the "Trends in the biology didactics' conference, which will take place at the 20th - 21st September 2018 within the area of the faculty, i.e. Magdaleny Rettigove 4 street, Prague 1. The event is held under the aegis of the dean, prof. PaeDr. Michal Nedelka, Dr.

Among the main subjects of the conference is the preliminary education of the natural history and biology teachers, the research within the area of the biology didactics and the common practise of the didactics, teachers and the teaching students.

The event's language is Czech.