
Keys to Inclusion

The lecture revolves around building the approaches towards the inclusive education, along with some examples of successful strategies to develop inclusive practises in both schools and outside them. These include dealing with kids and youths of all of the age categories, including the students with problematic behaviour.

The lecture is to be held in English.

web: <https://www.facebook.com/events/693533701018523/>