Call for Applications: 4EU+ Plurality of Memories Fellowship in Prague 2021

We are pleased to share a Call for Applications for the Annual Plurality of Memories: 4EU+ Fellowship at Charles University in Prague, Czech Republic, for post-docs and advanced Ph.D. students.

“Plurality of Memories in Europe in a Global Perspective” is now opening a call for post-doc fellows in Prague: This project started as an interdisciplinary initiative developed by scholars in the fields of history, literature, political science and sociology from four universities of the Alliance: Charles University, Heidelberg University, Sorbonne University and the University of Warsaw. It aims to create a European pole of excellence in Memory Studies by encouraging students’ and scholars’ collaboration and mobility between the six universities of the 4EU+ Alliance.

Who can apply: postdoctoral researchers and advanced Ph.D. students from the partner universities involved in the 4EU+ Alliance: University of Warsaw, Sorbonne University, Heidelberg University, University of Milan, University of Copenhagen.

Location: Charles University, Prague, Czech Republic.

Duration: The short-term fellowship will last for 5-7 days, during September 12 - November 14, 2021.

The fellowship consists of covered flight tickets, university-arranged accommodation, and a fixed daily allowance.

General requirements:

- one-page motivation letter;
- CV;
- Clear 4EU+ university affiliation

The fellows are expected to give one presentation of their ongoing research and submit a short blog post at the end of their fellowship.

How to apply:

All required documents are to be sent to the email 4euplus@fsv.cuni.cz with "4EU+ fellowship, Prague" as a subject. Deadline: 31 August 2021.
