Dvorky 2022

Dvorky 2022

We invite you to the opening of our academic year - the Dvorky festival, which will take place on the 13th of October on the faculty premises.

The main program encompasses lectures and discussions from war reporters, experts in geopolitics or international relationships, and many more.

Dvorky isn't an event solely for students but an event for our whole community, and that is why we would like it if you considered participating yourself.

And here si aftermovie from previous year here .
