
Workshop: Abstracts, titles and key words

WORKSHOP: Abstracts, titles and key words

The workshop will concentrate on writing academic paratexts ? titles, abstracts and key words. The participants will learn how to select the best title for a paper, how to write an abstract for different scientific purposes (e.g., conference application, journal article), how to structure main research findings in one or more well-developed paragraphs, and how to make an abstract appealing and persuasive to both readers and reviewers. Examples of more or less successful texts for analysis will be provided, but participants are encouraged to bring their own texts as well.

Tutor:

Mgr. Alena Andrlová Fidlerová, Ph.D.

More information about tutor:

Alena A. Fidlerová is a lecturer for the history of Czech language, Old Church Slavic, rhetoric, gender linguistics, and historical and contemporary stylistics. In addition to the history of Czech language, her research interests focus on the history of writing systems, history of language sciences, and history of rhetoric and stylistics, concentrating on Early Modern Period and the 1st half of the 19th century. She also teaches academic writing and practical stylistics courses. Besides bohemistics, she holds a master's degree in anglistics and biology.

Where: Hybernská Kampus, 2D

Type of event: workshop

Date of event: 12 December 2022

Time: from 14:00 to 15:30.

Registration: the Educational Portal

Capacity: 16 participants

Organiser: RUK

Organiser's contact: jitka.rychnova@ruk.cuni.cz

Participants: The course is intended for Ph.D. students.