
Advent concert

Advent concert

You are cordially invited to the Advent Concert organized by the Faculty of Education, Charles University, which will take place in the Great Hall of the Carolinum on December 10, 2025, at 7:00 PM. The evening will also include the awarding of commemorative medals to individuals who have significantly contributed to the pedagogical and academic life of the faculty and have enhanced its reputation.

This invitation is not only an opportunity to enjoy Christmas music but also a chance for personal gatherings in the reception areas of the Carolinum following the concert.

Program:

Creative Achievement Awards for 2025

Awarding of Commemorative Medals for significant contributions to the faculty's development and promotion of its good name

Performers:

Collegium paedagogicum, the mixed choir and orchestra of the Faculty of Education, Charles University

Conductor: Marek Valášek

Please register using the registration form .