
Nicky Hayes Lecture Series

Nicky Hayes Lecture Series

Nicky Hayes is a prominent British social psychologist and the author of over 25 books on psychology, which have been translated into more than 18 languages. Her professional work focuses primarily on social and organizational psychology, psychological research, and psychological testing. She has served as President of the British Psychological Society and is a Fellow of the Academy of Social Sciences.

Tuesday, October 13, 10:00–11:00 | M006, Myslíkova 7

LEARNING TO READ: LESSONS FROM SOCIAL NEUROPSYCHOLOGY

Wednesday, October 14, 16:15–17:45 | M006, Myslíkova 7

SOCIAL PSYCHOLOGICAL ASPECTS OF CONSPIRACY BELIEFS

Thursday, October 15, 10:00–11:00 | Main Hall (Aula), Magdaleny Rettigové 4

PERSONALITY ASSESSMENT IN THE MODERN WORLD: SOME CHALLENGES OF MULTICULTURALISM AND ARTIFICIAL INTELLIGENCE

Join in person or online:

<https://cesnet.zoom.us/j/95915234770>

Friday, October 16, 14:00–16:00 | M304, Myslíkova 7

PHD SESSION | DISCUSSION ON DISSERTATION RESEARCH TOPICS

Participation requires prior registration via email at irena.smetackova@pedf.cuni.cz.