

THIRD CONSOLIDATED VERSION

RULES FOR AWARDING SCHOLARSHIPS AND BURSARIES AT THE FACULTY OF LAW OF CHARLES UNIVERSITY*

Under sections 27 (1) (b) and 33 (2) (f) of Act No. 111/1998 Sb., to regulate higher education institutions and to change and amend other laws (“the Higher Education Act”), as amended, the Academic Senate of the Faculty of Law of Charles University has adopted the following Rules for Awarding Scholarships and Bursaries at the Faculty of Law of Charles University as an internal regulation of the Faculty:

PART I

Introductory Provision

Article 1

These Rules for Awarding Scholarships and Bursaries at the Faculty of Law of Charles University¹ stipulate under the relevant provisions of the Scholarship and Bursary Rules of Charles University (the “University Scholarship and Bursary Rules”) the conditions, rules, details, and other requirements for awarding scholarships and bursaries at the Faculty of Law of Charles University (the “Faculty”).

PART II

Scholarships and Bursaries

TITLE I

Scholarship for Outstanding Academic Achievement (under Article 4 of the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules)

Article 2

Criteria for Awarding the Scholarship

- (1) The scholarship for outstanding academic achievement is awarded in accordance with the criteria of the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules by virtue of office to a student who complies with the following criteria:
 - a) Is a student of the second to fifth year of study in a master’s programme offered by the Faculty;
 - b) Over the course of study acquired at least a normal number of credits no later than on the decisive day under Article 5 (11) of the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules;
 - c) Completed all compulsory subjects that he registered for in the immediately preceding year of study;
 - d) Achieved, in the immediately preceding year of study, not less than two thirds of a normal number of credits by completing subjects at the Faculty other than by recognition of assessment of study; and
 - e) In the immediately preceding year of study achieved a weighted average grade that is lower or equal to the threshold average grade.

* Translator’s note: Words importing the masculine include the feminine, and unless the context otherwise requires, words in the singular include the plural, and words in the plural include the singular

¹ Article 28 (2) of the Constitution of the Faculty of Law of Charles University

(2) The decisive day is 31 October of the calendar year in which the scholarship for outstanding academic achievement is awarded.

(3) If a student fulfils all requirements for taking the final part of the state final examination earlier than in the fifth year of study, he is treated as a student of a year of study immediately following the year in which he fulfilled the requirements for the purposes of paragraph 1 (a).

Article 3

Threshold Average Grade

(1) Threshold Average Grade means the lowest weighted average grade for the immediately preceding year of study for which it is true that a lower or equal weighted average grade for the immediately preceding year of study was achieved by at least such number of students complying with the criteria under Article 2 (1) (a) to (d) amounting to 10% of students of the Faculty who are not students of the first year of study in the master's programme of study at the Faculty and where no obstacle under the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules has arisen.

(2) The value of threshold average grade is published within one month of the decisive day in the publicly accessible section of the Faculty website.

Article 4

Weighted Average Grade

(1) The weighted average grade for a given year of study is calculated as a quotient of:

- a) The sum of weighted results of examinations and graded course credits taken in the given year of study;
and
- b) The sum of weights of individual results under letter a).

(2) The weighted result of an examination or graded course credit of a subject is a product of:

- a) The grade awarded including the grade "fail"; and
- b) The weight of a result which is defined as:
 1. The number of credits assigned to the subject, if the subject is taught at the Faculty; or
 2. The number 2 in other cases.

(3) If a student resat an examination or graded course credit, a simple arithmetic average of all grades awarded on all dates taken by the student in the given year of study is considered to be the awarded grade for the purposes of determining the weighted average grade.

(4) The weighted average grade is rounded to 2 decimal points.

Article 5

Amount of Scholarship

(1) The amount of scholarship for outstanding academic achievement is determined by the Dean after obtaining the opinion of the Academic Senate of the Faculty.

(2) The amount of scholarship under paragraph 1 is published in the publicly accessible section of the Faculty website.

Article 6

Awarding of the Scholarship

(1) Within 10 days of publishing the threshold average grade, the Dean informs, through the appropriate channels, a student who has been awarded the scholarship for outstanding academic achievement and directs the student to update the bank account number to which the scholarship will be paid. The details are stipulated in a Dean's directive.

(2) The Dean decides on awarding the scholarship immediately after the expiration of 20 days of the publishing of the threshold average grade.

(3) A student who was not awarded a scholarship for outstanding academic achievement may file a motion to the Dean suggesting that he be awarded the scholarship, no sooner than 40 days and no later than 3 months after the publishing of the threshold average grade. Motions submitted before and after this deadline shall not be considered.

(4) The motion under paragraph 3 is submitted in written form and must contain:

- a) Name, date of birth, permanent address, possibly other address for service, e-mail, telephone number, and year of study;
- b) Date and signature of the person submitting the motion; and
- c) Further details necessary to evaluate the legitimacy of the motion.

TITLE II

Article 14

Payment of the Bursary

(1) The bursary in cases worthy of special consideration is paid as a lump sum or as a regular payment.

(2) The manner of payment of the bursary under paragraph 1 is determined by the Dean in his decision on awarding the bursary.

TITLE V

Bursary to Support Study Abroad

(under Article 10 of the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules)

Article 15

Criteria for Awarding the Bursary by Virtue of Office

(1) The bursary to support study abroad is awarded by virtue of office to a student of a master's or doctoral programme of study who is selected in the Faculty selection procedure to study at a foreign higher education institution within the Erasmus + programme.

(2) The motion to award the bursary under paragraph 1 is submitted to the Dean by the relevant Vice-Dean.

Article 16

Criteria for Awarding the Bursary upon Application of a Student

(1) The bursary to support study abroad may be awarded upon application of a student to a student of a master's or doctoral programme of study who is selected or recommended in the Faculty selection procedure to study at a foreign higher education institution within the framework of:

- a) Inter-faculty agreement;
- b) Inter-university agreement; or
- c) Other exchange or bursary programme or as a so-called free mover.

Article 17

Reduction or Termination of Bursary

If a student fails to participate in the study stay abroad for the support of which he was awarded the bursary to support study abroad or if the study stay is shortened, the Dean may by virtue of office decide to terminate or reduce the bursary.

Article 18

Payment of the Bursary

The bursary to support study abroad is usually paid as a lump sum.

TITLE VI

Doctoral Bursary

(under Article 12 of the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules)

Article 19

Criteria for Awarding the Bursary

A doctoral bursary is awarded by virtue of office to a full-time doctoral student unless an obstacle under Article 13 (2) of the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules has arisen in his case.

Article 20

Amount of Bursary and its Awarding

(1) When determining the amount of the doctoral bursary for individual years, the Dean of the Faculty takes into account the amount of subsidy allocated for doctoral bursaries and the number of full-time students in the doctoral programme of study.

(2) The proposal for the amount of doctoral bursary is submitted by the Dean to the Academic Senate of the Faculty so that it can be discussed at its first meeting in the academic year.

(3) After the Academic Senate of the Faculty provides its opinion, the Dean stipulates without undue delay the specific amount of the doctoral bursary for individual years of the standard period of study and decides on the awarding of the bursary.

(4) The doctoral bursary is increased after fulfilment of the determined study, research, and other obligations by the student. The obligations and amounts by which the doctoral bursary is increased when the obligations are fulfilled are determined by the Dean in a directive; the Academic Senate of the Faculty gives opinion on the directive.

Article 21

Termination of the Bursary

If the Dean transfers a doctoral student from the full-time to the combined form of study, he also decides by virtue of office on the termination of the doctoral bursary as of the date on which the student was transferred to the combined form of study.

Article 22

Payment of the Bursary

The doctoral bursary is paid retroactively as a regular monthly recurring payment.

Article 23

Supplementary Bursary

(1) A full-time doctoral student who is neither employed nor a civil servant and pays the health insurance premium under the act regulating public health insurance may be awarded a supplementary bursary in justified cases, upon application of the student.

(2) The supplementary bursary may be awarded up to the amount of the premium paid.

(3) The supplementary bursary is paid twice a year.

PART III

Proceedings to Award, Reduce, or Terminate a Scholarship or Bursary

Article 24

Relation to the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules

Unless these Rules stipulate otherwise, the awarding, reduction, and termination of scholarships and bursaries is governed by the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules.

Article 25

Amount of Scholarship or Bursary

The Dean is not bound by the amount for which the student applies or which is mentioned in the motion to award a scholarship or bursary by virtue of office.

Article 26

Dean's Directive

(1) A Dean's directive stipulates the procedure for dealing with the applications and motions under these Rules and stipulates the details of the procedure to award, reduce, or terminate a scholarship or bursary. The Dean's directive may stipulate that the applications and motions under these Rules be submitted in electronic form.

(2) A Dean's directive may stipulate the forms for applications and motions under these Rules. An application or motion under these Rules for which a form was stipulated in the Dean's directive may be submitted only on such forms.

PART IV

Common, Transitional, and Final Provisions

Article 27

Obstacles to Awarding Scholarship or Bursary from Other Sources
(under Article 13 (7) (b) of the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules)

Obstacles to awarding a scholarship or bursary under Article 13 of the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules apply also to a scholarship or bursary paid from other sources under Article 15 of the University Scholarship and Bursary Rules.

Article 28

Payment of a Scholarship or Bursary

(1) A scholarship or bursary is paid without undue delay after the decision to award the scholarship or bursary becomes legally effective.

(2) Scholarships and bursaries are paid by way of a non-cash transfer to a bank account maintained at a provider of payment services in the Czech Republic. In exceptional circumstances the Dean may allow a different form of payment. The details are stipulated in a Dean's directive.

(3) Unless these Rules stipulate otherwise, a scholarship or bursary is paid as a lump sum.

Article 29

Suspension of Payment and Return of a Scholarship or Bursary

(1) A scholarship or bursary or a part thereof that is subject to proceedings to terminate or reduce said scholarship or bursary is not paid over the period of such proceedings.

(2) A student shall return to the Faculty the resources paid that are subject to a legally effective decision to terminate or reduce a scholarship or bursary.

Article 30

Transitional Provision

Proceedings started before the date of effect of these Rules will be completed under these Rules.

Article 31

Final Provisions

(1) The Scholarship and Bursary Rules of the Faculty of Law of Charles University in Prague approved by the Academic Senate of the Faculty on 2 April, 2015 are hereby repealed.

(2) These Rules were approved by the Academic Senate of the Faculty on 25 May, 2017.
